TELEGRAPHIC.

The Virginia Election—Probable Conservative Victory—The Constitution Adopted by a Large Majority

RICHMOND, Va., July 6.

The election passed off quietly. After nightfall the streets resounded with cheers for Walker and the victory in the State. A meeting of Walker men was held, and addressed by six colored men and several whites, including Mr. Hunnicutt.

Prominent Walker men here claim the State by 25,000 majority, and a decisive majority in both branches of the Legislature. Prominent Wells men claim that they have a decided majority in the State but give no figures. Nearly every telegram received here by either side shows large gains for Walker and a serious split in the colored vote, which it was claimed would be cast solid for Wells. The heaviest defection of colored men from the Wells ticket is in the south side counties, where the Walkerites ran several colored men for the Legislature. In Charlotte, a very strong colored county, 400 blacks voted for Walker.

Up to midnight telegrams were received which announced that Walker had carried the following counties: Bedford by 1000 majority, Augusta by 3000, Albemarle by ..., Culpepper by ..., Washington by 1000, Smith by 1000, Louisa and all the white counties west of the mountains.

Wells carries Petersburg by 1200, Greenville by 300, and Chesterfield, Nottoway, Charlotte and Halifax.

The Congressional candidates successful, as far as heard from, are: Porter (a Wells man), in this district, Brooker (a Walker man), in the Pittsylvania district, Norton (colored), in the York district, and McKenzie in the Alexandria district.

In very few counties have the blacks polled their registered vote, while the whites everywhere have polled their entire strength.

In this Legislative district the Walker men claim 300 majority, which gives them 11 members of the Legislature.

It is estimated by old politicians here that Gov. Wells' defeat is the most decided that has occurred since the Presidential campaign of 1856.

The Constitution, with the objectionable clauses expurgated, is adopted by an overwhelming majority.

About thirty counties have been heard from, which give Walker nearly 12,000 majority.

RICHMOND, July 7—1:30 A. M.

Thirty-three counties have been heard from, which give Walker about 15,000 majority.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 7.

The election in this vicinity passed off quietly.

Returns from Elizabeth City and county give Wells 1205 majority, and Warwick county about 125. Harris, the colored Wells ticket, falls behind in the two counties some 30 votes.

WASHINGTON, July 7.

The following dispatch was sent this afternoon by the Chairman of the Walker State Executive Committee to President Grant:—

Richmond, July 7.

Mr. President—On behalf of the Executive Committee of the Walker party, I congratulate you upon the triumph of your policy in Virginia. The gratitude of the people for your liberality is greatly heightened by the overwhelming majority by which that policy prevails.

R. T. DANIEL, Chairman.

To His Excellency U. S. Grant, President of the United States.

Walker's majority in the State is estimated by additional returns received this morning at 40,000. Both branches of the Legislature are undoubtedly carried by Walker men. This district elected 11 Walker men to the Legislature.

Returns upset the calculation of the Wells men, based upon the vote by color, some of the blackest counties having given large majorities for Walker.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, July 7.

The Herald has received the following special from Havana—

Havana, July 6.

Advices from Mexico to the 2d ultimo have been received here.

On Saturday, June 26, Gen. Rosecrans presented his letter of recall, and Minister Nelson was received in his official capacity at the Palace. The addresses were brief and diplomatic. Mr. Nelson declared that the government at Washington would present only just claims against Mexico to the commission.

The mother-in-law of Gen. Rosecrans died on the 17th, and was buried in the American cemetery at the capital.

New York Money Market.

NEW YORK, July 7.

Money stringent. The Commercial says stock loans range from 1-16 to 3-16 per day and Governments from 6 per cent. in gold per annum early in the day to 1-8 per cent. per day at noon.

RICHMOND, July 7.

Up to 1 o'clock today dispatches received here show that Walker carries the State by 40,000, and Legislature by 40 on a joint ballot. The following Walker candidates for Congress are certainly elected: McKenzie in the 7th district, Milne in the 6th, Gibson in the 8th, Ridgeway in the 5th, Sengar, Congressman at Large.

The following Wells Congressmen are elected: Platt in the second district, Porter in the 3d, Norton (colored) in the 1st.

All the telegrams this morning give overwhelming gains to Walker, so as to divest the result of the shadow of a doubt. The Walker men are assembled in the streets in great crowds cheering over the returns.

A SAD RIDE. Among a party of Swedish immigrants who arrived at St. Paul, Minnesota, on the 25th ult., was a woman who started with her only child, a fine boy of three years, to join her husband who had preceded her a year or two. While crossing the ocean the child sickened, and the mother not having the proper food and restoratives for it, there was no amendment when she landed at New York. Hoping that with the journey her child would be again restored to health, she pushed hastily forward to reach Minnesota, bearing the little invalid all the way in her arms. On Thursday night, soon after leaving McGregor, the little sufferer, still lying in the mother's arms, died. It was some little time before the mother discovered that the child was dead, and when she did her grief is described as almost amounting to frenzy. All night long she clung to the corpse of her littleone, and swinging her body to and fro, sobbed and moaned. Arriving at St. Paul she alighted from the cars, still weeping, and bearing the dead body of her infant in her arms. Here the railroad officials learning of the case, procured a coffin, and the child was buried in the West St. Paul Cemetery. The mother's grief at parting with her little one was touching in the extreme. The next morning she continued her journey to join her husband and inform him of their sad loss.

REVERDY JOHNSON'S DEFENCE. A long dispatch from Reverdy Johnson to Mr. Seward has just been published for the first time, which was written in February last and privately laid before the United States Senate. It was intended to influence that body to ratify the Alabama treaty, but appears to have ... . It will have no more effect upon the public judgment now, though ... points are of interest as evidence of ... position assumed up to that time by our Government. Of this nature is the following, relating to the claim for ... beyond the money damages actually ... by the Alabama:

"France recognized ... insurgents as belligerents, ... have tended to prolong the war. This, ... it may be said, was a violation ... duty and affected our honor. ... indemnity for our nation for ... recognition by England, we ... of France, and who has ... such a claim as that? But ... conclusive answer to these ... this: First, that at no time did ... while the Alabama and ... were engaged in giving our ... flames, or since, no branch of ... government proposed to hold her Majesty's ... government responsible except ... the property destroyed, and ... would have resulted from the ... of the voyages in which they were engaged. State Election, Monday, Sept. 13.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Democratic Tricks—Republican Facts.

The party and the men whose record is odorous with fraud and deceit find it always convenient to let bygones be bygones. But when a party becomes too dead to bury its dead, its evil spots will make a bad display. Among the tactics most in use by the Democracy last year, it will be recollected the science of false figuring was of the greatest efficiency. Elections were not only transposed and victories subverted, but the new school of mathematicians sought to put the country into a dubious position for the sake of destroying the Republican party. Certain leaders late in the campaign, finding they had failed to frighten the people by prospective defeat, turned their attention to the subject of the United States Treasury and taxation. These gentlemen admitted one Alexander Delmar to figure for the cause of Horatio Seymour by alarming our national creditors. Mr. Delmar brought forth a startling report which intimated that during the fiscal year 1868-9 the expenses of the Government must amount to $482,069,202, and that its entire receipts during the same period could not possibly rise above $321,020,000. They declared that the condition of the Treasury might be worse, but could not be better under the management of the Republican party, that the Treasury could not meet its current expenses through the year without a deficit of one hundred and fifty-four millions, to be obtained from increased taxes or loans; and that, in any event, any reduction of the debt was impossible, and an increased debt was most probable.

The fiscal year for which this special pleader in figures prophesied has just closed, and notwithstanding wo labor under the disadvantage of having had an army of Johnson leeches sucking at the Treasury most of the year, and the finances were bungled generally, the exhibit is even beyond our brightest expectations. Taxation has not been increased, new bonds have not been issued, the expenses of the Government have not outrun its receipts $164,000,000. On the contrary, its receipts have outrun its expenditures $156,000,000. The national debt was reduced during the past month $16,410,132. It has been reduced during the present Administration $36,260,770. The Government to-day has coin on hand to the amount of more than $110,000,000, with a currency balance of $37,000,000 besides.

When Mr. Delmar's statement was issued by the Seymour and Blair partizans, Republican papers and orators denounced it as glaringly unjust; they considered reasonably that it was a desperate attempt of desperate men to build up a falling party upon the nation's discredit. For this exposure the Democracy all over the land sent up lugubrious growls at what they termed the attempts to cover up rottenness and corruption in the Government. Our failure was only in so far as we were forced into the false position of covering up many foul stains of the Johnson administration, had it not been for which our exhibit would have been better. The contemptible trickery of the Democratic wire workers is in lamentable contrast with the honest purpose in the which the new government works out the problem of its mission. With a continuance of the present Republican plan of economy and retrenchment, twenty years will scarcely be required to wipe out the great debt contracted solely for the suppression of a Democratic rebellion.

The New Party Dissolving.

The more considerate and better portion of the temperance men of Maine evidently do not favor the independent notion. Many of those who have been claimed as its supporters deny the position, while even, we believe the larger portion of those who were honored in the Portland Convention by official places have declined to act with them, or will do so. Mr. Chas E. Parker, of Wilton, who was placed upon the State Temperance Committee, writes a letter to the Lewiston Journal withdrawing therefrom. After paying the temperance men a high compliment for their earnestness, he gives his reasons for this course as follows:

"But while these devoted friends of temperance are doing what they feel to be the surest way to promulgate the temperance cause, there are very many others—men equally as devoted to the great principle of temperance, and men who have labored long and earnestly, never tiring of the work—I say there are many such, who have felt that more can be done in the party that has ever committed itself in this State to prohibition and its execution. As the republican party has most emphatically done—than can be accomplished by the formation of a third party; and believing, as I do, that the action of that convention can only be detrimental to the cause of temperance, and the great principle of prohibition and its execution, I respectfully signify through the column of your paper, my resignation as one of the State Temperance Committee appointed at the State Convention. I do this feeling that it is for the best good of the temperance cause."

Mr. William Lowell, of Minot, also finds his name used without authority, and he writes:

"As I was not present at that Convention, and am clear in my convictions that it would be detrimental to the cause of temperance for the friends of this great reform to separate at this time from a party that has just declared itself for prohibition and its vigorous execution, this expression of my views may be proper. The friends of temperance have the precept openly and squarely set forth; now let us wait for the example and confidently labor and wait for it. It will be time enough to organize separately when we shall find that the party has broken its pledge. I am not ready to assume that it will be broken, for I know that a majority of the committee who reported meant it, and am confident that the great body of the republican party accept it in good faith."

B. F. Teague, Esq., of Turner, also writes, saying that he is informed his name appears on the State Committee appointed at Portland, but that he doubts the wisdom of a distant political movement under present circumstances, holding that the work of temperance men now is to hold the republican party to its platform of prohibition and its vigorous execution. There can be little doubt as to the direction in which the tide is setting.

The following morsel for the encouragement of the third party men appears in the Democratic organ here:

"We understand that Hon. N. G. Hichborn has decided to accept the Temperance nomination for Governor. He will poll a strong vote. The well posted Republican politicians admit that there will be no election by the people; and some assert that if the election goes into our Legislature, Smith will be our next Governor."

Overlooking the falsehoods,—which we found we could not omit all at the same retain a single limb of the extract,—the above illustrates the favor the Democracy expect at the hands of the third party. We don't believe temperance men are ready to lend themselves to any such work. Unless the Democrat is favored with more than ordinary means of communication, its news from Mr. Hichborn is manufactured; and the encouraging words for a "strong vote" are fathered by its wish, and of slender reliance.

The "Water Project."

As this subject is of great interest to our citizens generally, and as the question of the proper restrictions and regulations under which the Water Company may be allowed to introduce water into our City is now before our City Council, I have, at some trouble, obtained the charter of the "Portland Water Company," with its amendments; also, the "covenant" and "agreement" of that city with the water company, showing the "conditions, limitations and liabilities" under which the company were allowed to act.

Below will be found such extracts from the charter as may interest us, also the "City Ordinance" containing the "agreement" referred to.

In this connection allow me to say, that the subject of "hydrants" and their reliability in winter in our climate should be very thoroughly investigated before any action is taken. John Neal, Esq., of Portland has given the matter much attention, and, I think, shows very clearly that no Hydrant yet made can be relied upon in winter, and that in no case can the water works be considered more than an "aid," an "additional security" for a part of the year,—never as a "substitute" for a Fire Department. The City of Portland has, I understand, just ordered a new first class steam fire engine, notwithstanding the water works are almost ready to let on the water. JUSTICE.

EXTRACTS FROM THE CHARTER OF THE "PORTLAND WATER COMPANY."

Sec. 11. Said corporation shall furnish at all times, to the city of Portland, without expense to the city, for use in the public buildings and school houses of the city, and for the extinguishment of fires, such amount and volume of water as may be needful therefor; the necessary pipes and hydrants for distribution thereof, for the purposes named in this section, being furnished, laid and connected with the pipes of this company at the expense of the city.

Sec. 10. The mayor and aldermen, for the time being, shall at all times have the power to regulate, restrict and control the acts and doings of said corporation, which may in any manner affect the health, safety, or convenience of the inhabitants of said city.

AMENDMENTS, FEB. 1867.

"Sec. 0. At or after the expiration of six years, from the date of acceptance of this act by said corporation, the city of Portland shall have the right to take, exercise and control all the property, rights, powers and privileges of said corporation, on paying to said corporation such sum as may be agreed upon by the city and said corporation; or in case they cannot agree upon the sum to be paid, such sum as shall be fixed upon by three commissioners, who shall be appointed by the supreme court, upon the application of said city, and who shall fairly appraise the property and rights of said company, and return the report thereof to the supreme judicial court in the county of Cumberland, which report, when accepted, shall be final and conclusive upon the parties, and the said court may make any orders or decrees, or issue any process, necessary to carry the same into effect."

AMENDMENTS, FEB. 1868.

Sec. 2. The city council may embody such conditions and stipulations as may be agreed on by said parties, and may be deemed necessary to protect the interest of the inhabitants of said city in the ordinance by which the consent required in said ninth section shall be given, and such ordinance shall be binding on said water company. But nothing in such ordinance contained shall relieve said company from any of the duties and liabilities imposed by said act to which this act is additional.

Sec. 3. In addition to all legal remedies which may at any time exist, the Supreme Judicial Court shall have jurisdiction in equity, to compel the performance of all such conditions and stipulations, or of any contract or agreements made by said city and said company by virtue of such conditions and stipulations; and for this purpose it may grant injunctions and make decrees of specific performance by said company of such conditions, stipulations and contracts upon a summary hearing, and from time to time modify such injunctions and decrees as the case may require, in accordance with the rules and practice in equity proceedings in relation to injunctions.

Sec. 4. After the city council of Portland shall have given its consent for said company to lay their pipes in the streets, as provided in section nine of the act aforesaid, and shall have entered into a contract with the said company as authorized to do by this act, the Mayor and Aldermen of said city, at any time thereafter, may and are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a Board of Commissioners, consisting of three citizens of Portland, whose duty it shall be to see that the regulations made by virtue of said act, and the terms and conditions agreed upon between the city and said company are punctually observed and performed.

Such Commissioners shall be appointed by nomination by the Mayor, and confirmation by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen. One shall be appointed for one year, one for two years, and one for three years, so that one shall go out of office annually at the same time at which the term of office of the Mayor expires. When the term of any Commissioner expires, a new appointment shall be made in the same manner, for the term of three years. When a vacancy occurs in any manner, an appointment shall be made for the balance of the term.

AN ORDINANCE TO AUTHORIZE THE PORTLAND WATER COMPANY TO SUPPLY THE CITY OF PORTLAND WITH PURE WATER.

Be it Ordained, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the city of Portland, in city council assembled, as follows:

Sec. 1. The Portland Water Company are authorized to lay down in and through the streets of the city of Portland, and to take up and repair all such pipes, aqueducts and fixtures as may be necessary for the objects of their incorporation, subject to all the requirements of their charter, and the additional act approved February 14th, 1868, and to the conditions of the following agreement which is hereby incorporated into this ordinance as a part thereof, and as a condition of the consent thereby given.

This memorandum of an agreement made and entered into at Portland, this twenty-eighth day of February, A. D. 1868, by and between the city of Portland, of the first part, and the Portland Water Company, a corporation established and organized under the laws of the State of Maine, party of the second part, witnesseth:

That in consideration that the city of Portland doth hereby consent that the said Portland Water Company may lay down its mains and pipes in the streets of the city of Portland, subject to all the conditions and limitations and liabilities imposed in the charter of said company, which are as follows, viz:

The said company are authorized to lay down in and through the streets of said city and to take up and repair all such pipes, aqueducts and fixtures as may be necessary for the objects of their incorporation, the consent of the city council being given thereto under the following restrictions and regulations, and subject to the following agreements:

Said company shall be liable in all cases to repay to the city all sums of money that said city may be obliged to pay on any judgment, recovered against said city for damages occasioned by any obstructions, or taking up or displacement of any street by said company whatever, with or without the consent of the city council, together with counsel fees and other expenses incurred by said city in defending any suit to recover damages as aforesaid, with interest on the same, to be recovered in an action for money paid to the use of said company; and whenever the company shall lay down any pipes or aqueducts in any streets, or make any alteration or repair in their works in any street, they shall cause the same to be done with as little obstruction to the public travel as may be practicable, and shall at their own expense, without unnecessary delay, cause the earth and pavement removed by them to be replaced in proper condition; they will not in any case obstruct or impair the use of any private or public drain, or common sewer or reservoir or gas pipe; but said company shall have the right to cross or, when necessary, to change the direction of any private drain in such manner as not to obstruct or impair the use thereof; being liable for any injury occasioned by any such crossing or alteration to the owner thereof, or any other person injured, in an action on the case.

The said company on its part, doth hereby covenant and agree with said city as follows:

First.—Said corporation shall furnish at all times to the city of Portland, without charge to the city, for use in public buildings and school houses of the city, and for the extinguishment of fires and other strictly municipal purposes, such amount and volume of water as may be needful therefor; the necessary service pipes and hydrants for distribution thereof for the purposes aforesaid being furnished, laid and connected with the pipes of this company at the expense of the city, and will also supply upon the same conditions, free from charge to the city, the water for three public fountains, the regulation of the supply of water from the fountains to be under the joint control of the water commissioners of the city, and the president of the company.

Second.—The water shall be introduced into the city from Sebago Lake, by a twenty inch hydraulic main, so as to supply the hydrants within two years from January first, A. D. 1868.

Third.—A reservoir or reservoirs shall be constructed on Bramhall's or Munjoy Hills; of the capacity of 16,000,000 gallons, and the higher elevations on Bramhall and Munjoy shall be supplied by a stand pipe or by gravitation directly from the mains, in a manner satisfactory to the engineer of the city. The capacity of the reservoirs shall be increased from time to time when necessary to meet the requirements of increased consumption.

Fourth.—For city distribution, in addition to the twenty inch mains there shall be not be less than 5000 feet of sixteen inch pipe, 5000 feet of twelve inch pipe, 6000 of ten inch pipe, 10,000 feet of eight inch pipe, 40,000 feet of six inch pipe, and 10,000 feet of four inch pipe.

Fifth.—In the event of reasonable ground of complaint of want of supply to more sparsely populated portions of the city, the city council shall decide upon the feasibility and necessity, and the company shall lay its mains wherever the city council shall decide it reasonable to require under all the circumstances of the case.

Sixth.—The rate charged to the water takers shall be reasonable as compared with the rates in other cities, with due consideration to the cost and income of the works, and in case of excessive or exorbitant rates, shall be liable to correction by the supreme judicial court, under the equity powers conferred on the court by the act of February 14th, 1868, and for manufactories and other similar large consumers the maximum rates shall be fixed by the city and the company, and in case of their disagreement, by three commissioners appointed by the supreme judicial court.

The works shall be constructed under the supervision of an engineer appointed by the city, who shall confer with the engineer of the company as the work progresses, and in case of disagreement a third engineer shall be selected, whose decision shall be final.

In witness whereof, the said Portland Water Company, hath hereto by its president, thereto duly authorized, affixed the name and seal of said company, the assent of said city being given in the ordinance to which this agreement is incorporated.

The Portland Water Co., By G. F. SHEPLEY, President. } Corporate seal of the Company.

Approved March 3, 1868, AUG. E. STEVENS, Mayor.

Senator Wade, in a recent interview in California, expressed the opinion that other States in the Union, as soon as they understand the character of this intelligent, patient and industrious race (the Chinese,) would expend millions of dollars in obtaining them. He expressed the remark that before ten years would pass the people of California would be framing laws to prevent the deportation of the Chinese with far more zeal than they now sought to prevent them coming here.

THIRD PARTY NOMINATION.—Well, they have gone and done it! That portion of the temperance men who think no bread is preferable to a half-loaf, have set up a party of their own. How much the cause of temperance will be advanced by it we shall learn in the severe school of experience. It is to be deplored that its friends are to be divided. We feel sure the only result of the course pursued will be detriment and disgrace. But we urge all good men to abide in the Republican ship, freighted as it is with the interests of the Nation as well as the State, and do their duty. Mr. Hichborn is a worthy man, and we shall be surprised if he stands in the position which these bolters assign him. The live, practical, progressive people are going to vote for Joshua L. Chamberlain and no other man, and in doing so they do not turn their backs upon the cause of temperance.—[Rockland Gazette.

The latest hoax in the New York papers is the story of a movement on foot to form a State of Western Massachusetts out of the counties of Berkshire, Franklin, and Hampden, with perhaps Worcester also, the capital to be at Springfield, and the intimation of a similar plan in Maine.

TELEGRAPHIC
TO THE Whig & Courier.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 7.

The President will next week accompany his family to Long Branch and occasionally, during the summer, be absent from this city, but at no time over two weeks, perhaps never for so long a period.

His travelling movements will depend on the state of the public business, which will receive his attention at Washington whenever its importance shall so require.

The question of administering the ironclad oath to members elect of the Va. Legislature, has not yet been submitted to the Attorney General for his opinion.

It may be stated with more certainty than heretofore, that Minister Sickles has not been instructed to negotiate for the purchase of Cuba, and additional assurance comes from one of the best sources of official information that the government is not looking to the purchase of territory in any other quarter.

Secretary Boutwell today appointed Gen F E Spinner, U S Treasurer, custodian of the sinking fund and of such bonds as may be bought subject to the future action of Congress.

CABLE NEWS

London, July 7. The Times, commenting on last night's debate, says that by their last act the House of Lords have completed a transformation of the Ministerial scheme. They have refused by a majority of seventy to approve the clause appropriating the surplus funds of the church and have preferred to reserve the question for future consideration. The meaning of this vote is not obscure. The Duke of Argyle condemned it by anticipation as an attempt to reverse the vote by which the Duke of Cleveland's amendment, proposing concurrent endowment was rejected, and although we agree with the Marquis of Salisbury that Lord Cairns can scarcely fix the provision for the residences of Catholic priests at heart, we must acknowledge the justice of the Duke of Argyle's general conclusions, that the vote unquestionably reverses in spirit, if not in form, the decision against the Duke of Cleveland's scheme. The Times believes the country is ready and willing to support the grant for Ecclesiastical residences to Catholics and Presbyterians. If the opportunity to make it is rejected, it will be because the governing powers being unable to rise above the catch words of party, have not looked openly and courageously at the truth.

General Sir James York Scarlett has been made Knight of the Grand Cross of the Bath, and Lord Monck has been made Knight of the Star of India.

The telegraph purchase bill now before the House of Commons, proposes to raise seven million pounds in bonds for the purchase of lines and to make the service a monopoly, to go into existence on the 1st of January, 1870.

ALEXANDRIA, July 7.

Alexandria city and county gives a Radical majority of 260. Seaton (colored), and Close (white), are elected to the Legislature. Snowden and Taylor (Conservatives) are elected to the Senate.

McKenzie's majority for Congress is estimated at from 4000 to 5000.

RICHMOND, July 7.

The State, according to the latest returns tonight has gone by nearly 40,000 for Walker, and there is a Walker majority of 50 on the joint ballot in the Legislature.

The Walker people elect all their Congressmen except three, who are Platte, Porter, and Noxton (colored).

Several Walker colored men have been elected to the Legislature.

Second dispatch.—

Walker's majority in 42 counties is 27,600.

All of Wells strong counties are heard from. Those counties that are yet to be heard from will nearly double Walker's majority.

The city tonight presents the appearance of a Fourth of July night, with fireworks and cheering along the streets.

Army Re-Union

PROVIDENCE, July 7.

The reunion of the ninth corps and Burnside expedition was held at Rocky Point and seemed every way to be successful. There was a very large gathering, including many distinguished officers.

At the business of the meeting A E Burnside was re-elected President; Lewis Richmond, Recording Secretary; D. R. Lamed, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer.

Genl W S King, Col Wm B Hutchings, and Gen Lee, were constituted the executive committee.

Boston was fixed as the place for meeting next year on the anniversary of the Battle of South Mountain Sept. 14.

A Rhode Island clam-bake was served and afterwards a banquet was spread in the hotel in elegant style.

Toasts and speeches followed the dinner.

Indian Affairs.

ST. LOUIS, July 7.

A Salt Lake dispatch of the 6th, says that advices from La Pase, state that a party of Indians appeared near Atlantic City and Hamilton, yesterday, and drove away 40 horses.

A Government train was attacked by the Indians on Sunday while en route to Red River Valley. Troops were sent to their relief.

An Omaha dispatch of yesterday says advices from General Carr's expedition on the Republican River, state that the troops so far have been unable to bring the Indians to a stand, although skirmishing a number of times.

Fatal Accident.

HUDSON, July 7.

Joshua Plumb, a brakeman on the Hudson and Boston Railroad was instantly killed this morning by coming in contact with a bridge about two miles from the city while tending a brake, on the top of the freight cars. Plumb was injured three years ago while acting in the same capacity and by striking the same bridge, from the effects of which he never fully recovered.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, July 7.

The Democratic State Convention met at 2 o'clock this P. M., and organized with Hon. P. Van Trump as President. The following ticket was nominated for Governor, General W. S. Rosecrans, and on the second ballot, Lieut. Governor T. G. Godfrey; Judge of the Supreme Court, W. J. Gilmore; Treasurer of State, Stephen Buhrer; Attorney General, Col. J. M. Connell.

Resolutions were adopted denouncing the exemption by the Government of bonds from taxation, as unjust and opposing any appropriation for that purpose until they are made subject to taxation; declare the claim for the payment of bonds bought with currency in gold, as unjust, and if persisted in, will inevitably force upon the people the question of repudiation, denounce a protective tariff unjust and oppressive, and demand its repeal and the substitution of a tariff based upon revenue principles alone and upon the closest possible approximation to absolute free trade and declare that the Democratic party has always been prominently friendly to the interests and interests of the laboring men.

Political and Personal.

Baillie Peyton, a famous old politician of thirty years ago, turns up in Tennessee as a candidate for State Senator.

A stenographer read the last report of Andrew Johnson's utterances. "Yes," said he, "oh, yes; that is a good report. I have listened to and taken down the same stuff a hundred times, and I live to say it."

It is reported that Gen. Sickles takes out to Spain very important instructions, comprising an attempt on the part of the administration to put an end to further bloodshed in Cuba by offering a friendly intercession.

The progressive spirit of the age is evidenced by the fact that a meeting of Irish Republicans, held in Washington not long since, listened quietly and respectfully to a political speech delivered at their invitation by a colored preacher named Green.

Wade Hampton thinks the Southern Historical Society owes a duty to "the fathers of that Republic which exists now only in name," which can be discharged by collecting the facts relating to "our unfortunate but glorious struggle"—that is, the rebellion which Hampton can never get over.

Our Belfast correspondent writes that a match game of Base Ball was played there on Tuesday afternoon between the Dirigo's of Rockland, and the Passagassawaukeag's of Belfast, which resulted in a score of 33 and 37, Belfast boys winning after a closely contested and interesting game. The latter club is now the champion of the bay and river.

Meeting Thursday evening.

THE MAINE MISSION TENT is now pitched on the Common on Lime street, in which religious meetings will be held several days, to commence this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, and evening at 7½, also the remainder of the week, at the same hours of service. Elders P. S. Baker of Levant, and J. C. Welcome of Yarmouth, are in attendance to preach, and others are expected.—The people are cordially invited to attend.

THE INTERNATIONAL RAILWAY GUIDE is worked monthly by C. R. Chisholm & Co., Montreal, and to be had at the office of Capt. Flowers in this city. It contains some features to travellers in Maine not found in other Guides, among which is a [illegible] of the Maine Central Railroad.—As the price is only ten cents, no traveller should be without it.

—We have received from Mr. Isaac H. Morrill, formerly of this city, now of the house of Cotter & Sprague, Chicago, a large pamphlet of 170 pages, the Annual Statement of the Trade and Commerce of Chicago for the past year, published by the Board of Trade. The book contains many interesting facts and statistics to those who would be posted upon the extent and manner of Western business.

WHAT WE NEED. The approaching session of the Penobscot Musical Association, under the direction of Messrs. Root and Zerrahn, suggests anew the desirableness of an ORGAN to add in giving greater effect to the sublime choruses of the Masters, and equal in accomplishment to other places.—The Centennial Celebration of the Settlement of Bangor, that [illegible] was the week after, and in which the Musical Association will take part, furnishes a new inducement to procure such an instrument. The Association would no doubt invest a liberal sum for this purpose, if aided by those who have heretofore arranged their efforts to promote the cultivation of a musical taste among us.

MEANNESS. We heard of an exhibition of cold-heartedness or mean coolness which occurred on Monday which entitles the party to the notice to be put on record as the meanest man who visited our city on the Fourth. Mr. Albert H. Parker, a member of Union Hose Company, while crossing the bridge met a man who appeared to be in a high state of excitement and deep distress about something, and his searching looks seemed to search every nook and corner as if in search for something lost. After crossing the bridge Mr. Parker picked up a pocket book, containing some three hundred dollars in money, and at once conjectured, rightly as it proved, that it belonged to the person he had met. Retracing his steps, he hunted him up and after satisfying himself that the pocket book was his, he returned it. The owner, now having his property returned, overflowed with gratitude to his honest benefactor, and very kindly invited him to step in somewhere and take something cool to drink!

PERSONAL. The many friends of Mrs. C. A. Barry, better known here as Mrs Flora Gary, the charming Contralto who has added so much to the interest of our Musical Conventions and Festivals, will regret to learn that she lies seriously ill at her residence in Boston. The Boston Journal of yesterday says:

"Mrs C. A. Barry, the contralto singer, is lying very dangerously ill at her residence in Harrison avenue, with inflammation of the brain, and it is feared that a permanent insanity to the head will follow. Her physician has ordered her to be moved from the city at the earliest moment possible."

PERSONAL. We learn that Mr. John C. Flint, formerly of this city has received an appointment in the office of the First Comptroller of the U. S. Treasury. Mr. Flint made application for an appointment early in March last. Finding his health much improved by a change of climate, he has recently become permanently engaged in business in the city of Philadelphia and will decline the position.

—The Lewiston Journal says Mr. James Hurst, of Sabattisville, is building a brick woolen mill 60 by 50 feet and 4 stories. It will contain 3 sets of machinery and give employment to about 60 hands, in the manufacture of repellents, going into operation about September 1st.

—Superintendent Noyes says while the new arrangement of the afternoon trains discommodes a few passengers at way stations between Portland and Danville Junction, this inconvenience is more than balanced by the more prompt forwarding of mails and the prevention of delay of through passengers.

—The Eastport Sentinel says, reports from different parts of the State, the interior especially, indicate an average hay crop this season. In that section, while new lands look promising, and yield more than an average crop, the old lands are extremely light, and look as though they would hardly pay for cutting.

—Frank H. Nye of Waterville, son of Joshua Nye, Esq., who has just graduated at West Point, has been appointed 2d Lieutenant in the second U. S. Cavalry and Jas. E. Porter, also of this State, to be 2d Lieutenant of Co. B. 10th Infantry.

—The Lewiston Journal says, two boys, Walter Conant and Moses Hawes, about 16 years old each, went into Messrs. Otis' Bros shoe, some a day or two since. Conant engaged the proprietors' attention while Hawes took a pair of boots. Putting the boot on the other leg, Hawes then entertained him of the shop while Conant took two five dollar bills from the drawer. Marshal Pease arrested both boys Saturday morning, and they are now in jail awaiting trial. They both confess guilt, and will plead guilty.

LAWS OF BUSINESS for all the States of the Union, with forms and directions for all transactions, by Theophilus Parsons, LL. D., is just published by S. S. Scranton & Co., Hartford, Conn. A work of this character and from this source needs few words of commendation. No more important book could possibly be imagined than this for the farmer, the trader, and the mechanic, who is to depend upon his judgment in so many matters of business transactions who [illegible] advice [illegible]. A thorough knowledge of the subjects discussed in this work is useful to all in any ordinary business affairs. The forms it gives alone are worth the price of the whole. It is published in 8vo form, containing almost 700 pages, and is neatly printed and bound.

The Maine Conference of Unitarian Churches which opened on Tuesday is now in session in Belfast, and was to continue through yesterday and today. The first business meeting was held yesterday morning. Rev. M. Bailey, of Portland, preached a sermon on Tuesday evening and communion services were held. The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, F. W. Sabine, of Bangor; Secretary, Rev. M. Beach, of Augusta; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. A. D. Wheeler, of Topsham; Rev. M. P. Emery, of Portland, Treasurer. The delegates and visitors were cordially welcomed to the city and the homes of the members of the society by Rev. Dr. Palfrey, from abroad.

—The Waterville Mail learns that the dedication services for the Memorial Hall of Colby University have been arranged for Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 10th. Rev. Dr. Bosworth, of Haverhill, Mass., will make the principal address.

—The Supreme Court of Maine has given a decision for the plaintiff in the case Augusta Savings Bank vs City of Augusta. It virtually settles the question that savings banks are not subject to any municipal tax action whatever.

—Hon. Stephen D. Lindsey of Norridgewock has been nominated Assistant Assessor for Somerset county by Gen. Connor, Assessor of Internal Revenue. He succeeds Wm. M. E. Brown Esq., the Reporter says.

—At the base ball match between the Androscoggin and Eon clubs, played at the Tournament, Monday, the score stood, Androscoggins 32, Eons 40, says the Lewiston Journal.

MOUNT DESERT.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal has been sojourning at this place, and appreciates its advantages as a summer resort. We are aware that the charms of our coast are just beginning to be known abroad, from the fact that many who now visit us for the first time are agreeably surprised. There is no doubt that in future the islands and bays east of us must figure largely in the list of summer resorts. We quote the writer alluded to:

"To the great majority of summer travellers, Mount Desert Island has been comparatively unknown. Situated, as it is, out of the ordinary routes of travel, and until recently but imperfectly connected with the rest of the world through the medium of conveyances, it has had little opportunity of becoming known. And yet it is not a new place. Lovers of comfort without inexhaustible misery and extortionate charges, have enjoyed the advantages it presents for more than a decade. Dame Fashion, with all her other cares, has paid but little attention to this district, and her votaries continue to follow only where she leads, have turned their faces in other directions. Within two or three years, however, that fickle goddess has examined its claims to be placed on her list, and the results of her, at present, limited sanction, are seen in the annually increasing number of visitors to its shores. It will be several years before her reign there is completely established, and meanwhile the island remains as of old a pleasant and enjoyable resort.

After giving further details of the best points, the means and routes of conveyance to Mt. Desert, the writer thus describes one of the chief localities on Mt. Desert:

South West Harbor, as its name implies, (though why "west" is added, we cannot conceive) is located upon the southerly shore of the island, and is its principal port and business centre. Its business, however, interests but little those of us who go for pleasure and relaxation. Our minds are more interested in revolving the question of what we shall do for amusement and how we shall do it, than in ascertaining the amount of Messrs. Underwood & Co.'s lobster business, or the number of vessels which "the Doktin" builds and repairs in the course of a year.

Clarke's Point, which stretches out from the Island, forming one side of the entrance to Somes Sound, commands the best general view to be obtained from any spot in Southwest Harbor, excepting the mountain tops. Distinctly visible from this point, and running out into the sound, is Fernald's Point, where the first attempt to found a French settlement upon the Island is supposed to have been made. Various circumstances related in the history of the settlement seem to point to this locality as the spot so chosen. Elijah Hamlin, Esq., of Bangor, brother of a former Vice President of the United States, after making a careful examination of the place, was led to the same conclusion. Southwest Harbor Point, two or three miles distant, is supposed to have been the location of their second attempt to found a settlement, in both of which they were frustrated by the English after a short residence.

The treasure seekers, who are at work on a patch of ground at Valley Cove, about three miles from Southwest Harbor, are just now the nine days' wonder of the Island. The characters are, Wasgatt, a man of about fifty-six, a whilom blacksmith, a believer in Spiritualism, and claiming to work under spiritual directions; and Robinson, an idle, shiftless sort of a fellow, who happens to be possessor of the ground under which the spirits say the vast treasures of Kidd and his associates are concealed. Wasgatt does all the digging and Robinson all the talking—rather an unequal division of the labor one would think, but Robinson being "lord of the soil" cannot be induced to touch pick or shovel to aid in the laudable undertaking. So Wasgatt, if he would have anything done, must needs do it himself. In the course of his excavations, our blacksmith has reached a large, smooth ledge of rock, marked by some rather singular scratchings, which to him assume shapes indicative of the spoils beneath. He firmly believes this ledge to be the roof of Kidd's Cave, but with all his digging he has not yet found an entrance. "Put in a charge of powder and blow open the ledges," says an obliging neighbor. "Can't; spirits won't agree to it," is Wasgatt's terse reply, and he resumes his spade and pick, another barrow with earth. The "spirits" said "Dig here, and thou shalt meet with thy abundant reward." In obedience to the mandate he has dug for nearly a year with unwavering faith, but still the reward tarrieth, and no signs of the treasure appear. Last season, though he was at work, this project was not noised about sufficiently to excite any attention. This season, we venture to predict, that the diggings will be honored by the presence of sufficient numbers of the curious, whose voluntary contributions to the old man will no doubt greatly exceed anything he will ever extract from his hole in the ground.

Echo Lake, a long pond lying by the roadside a few miles from S. W. Harbor, and skirting the foot of Beech Hill Mountain, is noticeable only for the fine echo which haunts its borders, and from which it takes its name. Lake Whitney, a beautiful sheet of water six miles long, is situated further back in the country. Both these lakes offer excellent trout, perch, and smelt fishing.

None of the mountain tops around S. W. Harbor are accessible other than by foot path, and as a consequence are not so much frequented.

The lobster factory of Messrs. Underwood & Co., of Boston, always attracts some attention from the novelty which attends the canning of this delicious edible. The firm employ from fifty to a hundred hands, and turn out during the busy season 4000 cans per day."

The Fourth of July was celebrated in the principal cities of Europe. At Vienna a banquet was given at the United States Legation, at which Secretary Hay presided, and on toasting the health of the Emperor of Austria, called to mind the dispatch sent by Secretary Seward to Minister Motley in 1862, in which a tribute was paid to the dignity, moderation and justice which marked the policy of Austria at the beginning of the rebellion in America, and added Mr. Hay, "These qualities continued to characterize the conduct of the Austrian government throughout the war." Minister Jay gave a toast to the health of Baron Von Beust.

At Stuttgardt, 200 Americans and their friends sat down to a dinner. Mr. Herman presided. Toasts were drank to the Independence of America, to President Grant, to Congress, to the Army and Navy of the United States and to the King of Wurtemburg. At night a ball was given at which over 1000 guests were present.

FROM THE
TEA PLANTATION
OF AR-HUM,

To his brother Bun, the largest Tea Merchant in the known world, in the city of Boston.

This tea was brought to this country by the Pilgrim Fathers for their own use and the use of their families and friends. This celebrated tea was first raised by an old Chinawoman. She never divulging where she obtained the seed, it remains a secret to this day. The old lady cured it by putting it in a saucer, and holding it over a patent nurse lamp to slow music. Her friends, after her decease, tried it, and found it superior to anything they had tasted. They found a small amount of the seed in an old stocking, and succeeded after much time and toil, in raising enough to give all the crowned heads a taste. They soon sold their right to raise the same to Ar-Hum, who, regardless of the pressing call from all the palaces of the old world, sends it all to his brother, Ar-Bun & Co., of Boston, who lets us have a small amount for our trade. This tea has all the flavor of rum, gin and brandy. We warrant it to suit.

We would state we have a

TEEN-EU TEA,

From the Tea Plantation of Ung Ar-Showe to his brother Oong Ar-Showe, the great China Tea Merchant, 25 Union St., Boston.

This celebrated Tea was first sent to this country in 1868, by Ung Ar-Showe, as a present to his brother, for his own use and the use of his friends. He first raised this tea in 1865, having got the seed in Canton; and, in 1868, he gathered seven chests, having cured it in porcelain over a low fire. He and his friends tried it, and found it superior to any tea they had ever seen before; so they sent samples to all the great tea dealers in Canton, Hong Kong and Pekin, and they all pronounced it the best tea they had ever seen. It has all the good qualities of Japan, Oolong, and Hyson. Natural Leaf, perfectly pure, delightful flavor, and very strong. They wanted to engage all he could raise for their trade; but he sends it all to his brother in Boston, and we have what we want of it for our trade here. We warrant this to suit all lovers of tea; also to be better than can be bought in the United States for $1.25 per pound, and we sell it at the low price of $1.10 per lb.

Come, or send and try it.

The Paris Mob.

From the correspondent of the London Star we copy a brief description of the mob in that city on the night of the 8th of June:

As on Monday the boulevards were thronged by men in blouses and workmen in ordinary dress, wearing caps. The densest groups were to be seen opposite cafes, and at the corners of all the boulevards Montmartre and Bonne Nouvelle, and especially towards and on the Place de la Bastile. The rallying cry of the rioters is "Vive Rochefort," which they shout to the air of "Les lampions." After a few minutes of this cry, they commence singing the "Marseillaise." Nothing can be more difficult than the work of the sergents de ville. No sooner has a body of these men dispersed the rioters in one part of the boulevard than they have gathered in another. The cafes on the Boulevard Montmartre were last night, as on the previous evening, closed by order of the officers de paix at eleven o'clock. In spite of this precautionary measure the shouting and riotous demeanor of the dense masses, congregated and rapidly increasing, assumed by midnight so alarming a character that a battalion of the infantry of the Garde de Paris and a squadron of the same garde, their drums beating, were marched down the boulevards, and not till then did the rioters disperse. A strong body of mounted municipal guard took up its station across the Boulevard Montmartre, and effectually prevented all circulation. Those who, like myself, wished to return to the Boulevard de la Madeleine, had therefore to take the streets to right or left of the Boulevard. In these the contrast was extraordinary; every shutter closed and not a human being to be seen, although, perhaps, within a few yards of these perfectly quiet quarters the city presented the appearance of being in a state of open insurrection. The Mairie of the Grange Bateliere was all night garrisoned by the Municipal Guard. Scenes of even a more serious nature took place at Belleville, a quarter of the city yet further east than Montmartre, and near the Buttes Chaumont. It has hitherto been simply known as the Quartier des Guingettes, or pot-houses. The riot there originated in a trifling circumstance. A tavern keeper, whose wine shop stands at the corner of the Rue des Trois Couronnes, called in a couple of the police to compel a man who had been drinking at his counter to pay the reckoning. A crowd gathered, and naturally ... the part of the defaulter. Water was ... on the mob by the inhabitants of the house, which the mob revenged by ... the windows and breaking ... shop. By nine o'clock it had been ... that some of the people be... the tavern and strove to drive the ... of the premises. A fresh brigade of ... de ville, under the command ... officers de paix, marched down ... assistance of their comrades, and ... to restore order. Six of the ... were taken. While these rioters were going on in the neighborhood of the ... station, another band of insurgent ... the Boulevard of Belleville, ... the gas lamps, putting out the ... the windows of kiosques, ... manifesting their love of and devotion ... cause of liberty by committing a ... mischief as they had the power of ... Dispersed by sergents de v... these rioters came across a police van ... opportunity of releasin... whether thieves or pickpockets ... not to be neglected. They according ... the horses, dragged the coachman ... his box and wounded him so ... that he has little chance of his life. I must call your attention to the fact that the rioters are the scum of the people, men who have nothing to lose, and who, it appears, are regularly paid by a higher class of workmen to bring on any outbreak. I, myself have been struck by the low appearance and miserable dress of the men composing the throng in the midst of which I was on Tuesday night and Monday. Now, the Paris workman in general is admirably clothed; his house is clean, and whole; he is invariably well shod, and his whole appearance indicates care and cleanly habits. Such is not the aspect of the of the man who has not been out those two nights; and especially in the Belleville quartier was this remarkable. There was an attempt in the Rue Fonbourg du Temple to form a barricade of omnibuses and cabs, to which the mob were preparing to add the planks and scaffolding from some adjacent buildings in course of erection. Here kiosques were broken and lampposts torn down. Stones were thrown at the windows and shop fronts smashed in, although their proprietors had closed their outside shutters. The rioters who thus distinguished themselves took a cab lamp from a vehicle passing by, attached it to the end of a pole and then cried "Vive La Lanterne!" and "Vive la Republique." I fear they scarcely made as good a thing of their lantern, as does their unknown hero Rochefort, who clears £1,500 per month by his red covered pamphlet. The terror of the inhabitants during these scenes can scarcely be exaggerated. At La Villette, a quarter divided by the Canal de Ourcq, similar riots broke out. This morning a small army of glaziers were busily employed in repairing the damages accomplished last night. Reports from the provinces bring us news of similar riots at Bordeaux, Lyons, and Nantes. At the latter town the workmen refuse to accept the return of M. Gaudin, and threaten to attack the farmers and laborers who have voted for him. Troops were called out, but, as is the case with regard to the police of Paris, they manifested remarkable forbearance and a collision was avoided. There were a few wounded, but nothing grave has occurred. One of the groups of rioters on Tuesday night styled themselves "Rochefortists" and their opponents "Jules Favrites." These finding that the sergents de ville left them unmolested, commenced fighting among themselves and indulged in dealing heavy blows at each other. The Rochefortists had the best of it.
